

WORLINGWORTH PARISH COUNCIL VEXATIOUS COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

| | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| Responsibility: | Parish Clerk |
| Version: | 2 |
| Prepared by: | Parish Clerk |
| Adopted by Resolution of : | Worlingworth Parish Council on 21 st July 2021 |
| Reviewed & Re-Adopted: | 19 th July 2023 |
| Date of Next Review: | July 2025 |

This policy applies equally to Councillors, Employees, Contractors, Members of the Public and Members of the Media.

1. Introduction

This policy identifies situations where complaints received, either by an individual complainant or as part of a group, or a group of complainants, might be considered to be habitual or vexatious. The following clauses form the Parish Council's policy for ways of responding to these situations.

1.1. In this policy, the term habitual means 'done repeatedly or as a habit'. The term vexatious is recognised in law and means 'denoting an action or the bringer of an action that is brought without sufficient grounds for winning, purely to cause annoyance to the defendant'.

1.2. This policy intends to assist in identifying and managing persons who seek to be disruptive to the Parish Council by pursuing an unreasonable course of conduct.

1.3. The term complaint in this policy includes requests made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Data Protection Act 2018 and reference to the Complaints Procedure is, where relevant, to be interpreted as meaning a request under those Acts.

1.4. Habitual or vexatious complaints can be a problem for Council staff and members. The difficulty in handling such complainants is that they are time consuming and wasteful of resources in terms of Officer and Member time. While the Council endeavours to respond with patience and sympathy to the needs of all complainants there are times when there is nothing further which can reasonably be done to assist or to rectify a real or perceived problem.

1.5. Raising of legitimate queries or criticisms of a complaints procedure as it progresses, for example, if agreed timescales are not met, should not in itself lead to someone being regarded as a vexatious or an unreasonably persistent complainant. Similarly, the fact that a complainant is unhappy with the outcome of a complaint and seeks to challenge it once, or more than once, should not necessarily cause him or her to be labelled vexatious.

1.6. The aim of this policy is to contribute to the overall aim of dealing with all complainants in ways which are demonstrably consistent, fair and reasonable.

2. Habitual or Vexatious Complainants

2.1. For the purpose of this policy the following definitions of habitual or vexatious complainants will be used:

The repeated and/or obsessive pursuit of:

- a. unreasonable complaints and/or unrealistic outcomes; and/or
- b. reasonable complaints in an unreasonable manner.

2.2. Prior to considering its implementation, the Council will send a summary of this policy to the complainant to give them prior notification of its possible implementation.

2.3. Where complaints continue and have been identified as habitual or vexatious in accordance with the criteria set out in Section 3, the Parish Council will seek agreement to treat the complainant as a habitual or vexatious complainant for the appropriate course of action to be taken. Section 4 details the options available for dealing with habitual or vexatious complainants.

2.4. The Parish Clerk on behalf of the Parish Council will notify complainants, in writing, of the reasons why their complaint has been treated as habitual or vexatious and the action that will be taken. The District Councillor for the area will also be informed that a constituent has been designated as a habitual or vexatious complainant.

2.5. The status of the complainant will be kept under review. If a complainant subsequently demonstrates a more reasonable approach, then their status will be reviewed.

3. Definitions

3.1. The Parish Council defines unreasonably persistent and vexatious complainants as those complainants who, because of the frequency or nature of their contacts with the Council, hinder the Council's consideration of their or other people's complaints. The description 'unreasonably persistent' and 'vexatious' may apply separately or jointly to a particular complainant.

3.2. Examples include the way in which, or the frequency with which complainants raise their complaints with staff or how complainants respond when informed of the Council's decision about the complaint.

3.3. Features of an unreasonably persistent and/or vexatious complainant include the following (the list is not exhaustive, nor does one single feature on its own necessarily imply that the person will be considered as being in this category):

An unreasonably persistent and/or vexatious complainant may:

- have insufficient or no grounds for their complaint and be making the complaint only to annoy (or for reasons that he or she does not admit or make obvious),
- refuse to specify the grounds of a complaint despite offers of assistance,
- refuse to co-operate with the complaints investigation process while still wishing their complaint to be resolved,
- refuse to accept that issues are not within the remit of the complaints policy and procedure despite having been provided with information about the scope of the policy and procedure,
- refuse to accept that issues are not within the power of the Council to investigate, change or influence,
- insist on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the complaints procedure or with good practice (e.g. insisting that there must not be any written record of the complaint).
- make what appear to be groundless complaints about the staff dealing with the complaints, and seek to have them dismissed or replaced,
- make an unreasonable number of contacts with the Council, by any means, in relation to a specific complaint or complaints,
- make persistent and unreasonable demands or expectations of staff and/or the complaints process after the unreasonableness has been explained to the complainant (an example of this could be a complainant who insists on immediate responses to questions, frequent and/or complex letters, faxes telephone calls or e-mails),
- harass or verbally abuse or otherwise seek to intimidate staff dealing with their complaint, in relation to their complaint, by use of foul or inappropriate language or by the use of offensive and racist language or publish their complaints in other forms of media,
- raise subsidiary or new issues whilst a complaint is being addressed that were not part of the complaint at the start of the complaint process,
- introduce trivial or irrelevant new information whilst the complaint is being investigated and expect this to be considered and commented on,
- change the substance or basis of the complaint without reasonable justification whilst the complaint is being addressed,
- deny statements he or she made at an earlier stage in the complaint process,
- are known to have electronically recorded meetings and conversations without the prior knowledge and consent of the other person(s) involved,

- adopts a 'scattergun' approach, for instance, pursuing a complaint or complaints not only with the Council but at the same time with, for example, a Member of Parliament, other Councils, elected Councillors of this and other Councils, the Council's Independent Auditor, the Police, other public bodies or solicitors,
- refuse to accept the outcome of the complaint process after its conclusion, repeatedly arguing the point, complaining about the outcome, and/or denying that an adequate response has been given,
- make the same complaint repeatedly, perhaps with minor differences, after the complainant's procedure has been concluded and insist that the minor differences make these 'new' complaints which should be put through the full complaints procedure,
- persistently approach the Council through different routes or other persons about the same issue,
- persist in seeking an outcome which Council has explained is unrealistic for legal or policy (or other valid) reasons,
- refuse to accept documented evidence as factual,
- complain about or challenge an issue based on a historic and/or an irreversible decision or incident,
- combine some or all of these features.

4. Imposing Restrictions

4.1. The Parish Council will ensure that the complaint is being, or has been, investigated properly according to the adopted complaints procedure.

4.2. In the first instance, the Parish Clerk will consult with the Chair of the Council prior to issuing a warning to the complainant. The Parish Clerk will contact the complainant in writing, or by e-mail, to explain why this behaviour is causing concern and ask them to change this behaviour and outline the actions that the Council may take if they do not comply.

4.3. If the disruptive behaviour continues, the Parish Clerk will issue a reminder letter to the complainant advising them that the way in which they will be allowed to contact the Parish Council in future will be restricted. The Parish Clerk will make this decision in consultation with the Chair of the Council and inform the complainant in writing of what procedures have been put in place and for what period.

4.4. Any restriction that is imposed on the complainant's contact with the Council will be appropriate and proportionate and the complainant will be advised of the period of time over which that the restriction will be in place. In most cases, restrictions will apply for between three to six months, but in exceptional cases, this may be extended. In such, the restrictions would be reviewed on a quarterly basis, or at the next Full Council Meeting.

4.5. Restrictions will be tailored to deal with the individual circumstances of the complainant and may include:

- banning the complainant from making contact by telephone except through a third party e.g. a solicitor, a Councillor or a friend acting on their behalf,
- banning the complainant from sending emails to individuals, Councillors and/or all Council Officers and insisting they only correspond by postal letter,
- requiring contact to take place with one named member of staff only.
- restricting telephone calls to specified days and/or times and/or duration requiring any personal contact to take place in the presence of an appropriate witness,
- letting the complainant know that the Parish Council will not respond to or acknowledge any further contact from them on the specific topic of that complaint (in this case, a designated member of the Council or staff will be identified who will read future correspondence).

4.6. When the decision has been taken to apply this policy to a complainant, the Clerk will contact the complainant in writing to explain:

- why the decision has been taken,
- what action has been taken,
- the duration of that action.

4.7. The Parish Clerk will enclose a copy of this policy in the letter to the complainant.

4.8. Where a complainant continues to behave in a way that is unacceptable, the Parish Clerk, in consultation with the Chair of the Council may decide to refuse all contact with the complainant and stop any investigation into his or her complaint.

4.9. Where the behaviour is so extreme or it threatens the immediate safety and welfare of staff, other options will be considered, e.g. the reporting of the matter to the police or taking legal action. In such cases, the complainant may not be given prior warning of that action.

5. New complaints from complainants who are treated as abusive, vexatious or persistent

5.1. New complaints from people who have come under this policy will be treated on their merits. The Parish Clerk and the Chair of the Parish Council will decide whether any restrictions that have been applied before are still appropriate and necessary in relation to the new complaint. A blanket policy is not supported, nor ignoring genuine service requests or complaints where they are founded.

5.2. The fact that a complainant is judged to be unreasonably persistent or vexatious, and any restrictions imposed on Council's contact with him or her, will be recorded and notified to those who need to know within the Council.

6. Review

6.1. The status of a complainant judged to be unreasonably persistent or vexatious will be reviewed by the Parish Clerk and the Chair of the Parish Council after three months and at the end of every subsequent three months within the period during which the policy is to apply, or by the next Full Council Meeting.

6.2. The complainant will be informed of the result of this review if the decision to apply this policy has been changed or extended.

7. Record Keeping

7.1. The Parish Clerk will retain adequate records of the details of the case and the action that has been taken. Records will be kept of: Worlingworth Parish Council Vexatious Requests & Complaints Policy

- the name and address of each member of the public who is treated as abusive, vexatious or persistent, or any other person who so aids the complainant,
- when the restrictions came into force and end,
- what the restrictions are
- when the person and Council were advised.

7.2. Full Council will be provided with a regular confidential report giving information about members of the public who have been treated as vexatious/persistent as per this policy.

7.3. All records will be kept in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations 2016 and the Data Protection Act 2018.

8. Protection from Harassment

8.1. Election or co-option to a parish council or appointment as an employee of a council are not situations in which an individual should become vulnerable to harassment from members of the public without means of redress. The offence of harassment is defined by Sections 1 and 2 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, which states that a person must not pursue a course of conduct (a) which amounts to harassment of another, and (b) which he knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other. A person may be subject to harassment by writing (emails or letters), orally (in person or by telephone) or by conduct (stalking). An offender does not have to act in a malicious, threatening, abusive or insulting way. Harassment is not fully defined in law but includes causing a person alarm or distress on two or more occasions.

8.2. Occasionally, complaints treated as vexatious according to the foregoing clauses of this procedure might also be regarded by their recipient (council member or employee) as causing personal alarm or distress. Redress in such cases will be for the individual to make a personal report to the Police.

8.3. Individuals who, as members or employees of the Parish Council, are subject to harassment in their capacity as representing the interests of the Parish Council should normally consider invoking the provisions of this procedure as the remedy before taking action under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997.

Note: This policy has been produced from the models recommended by both the Local Government Association (LGA) and the National Association of Local Councils (NALC). Hamsey Parish Council adapted the original model of policy to suit a Parish Council's needs. This policy is based on the Hamsey Model